6-1. APPORTIONMENT OF ELECTION EXPENSES.

Article 1.—APPORTIONMENT OF ELECTION EXPENSES

6-1-1. Direct expenses. (a) The direct expenses which shall be apportioned by the county election officer among the subdivisions of government for which elections are conducted shall be those which would not have been incurred but for the conduct of such election, and shall include:

- (1) Publication of legal notices.
 - (2) Printing of ballots and preparation of voting machines.
 - (3) Transportation of voting machines.
 - (4) Postage.
 - (5) Rental of polling places, clean-up and similar expenses incurred in the provision of voting places.
 - (6) Cost of poll books, summary sheets, clerical supplies used at polling places.
 - (7) Transportation of ballots, delivery of supplies to voting places.
 - (8) Election judges and clerks.
- (b) The cost of printing of ballots shall be apportioned equally among the subdivisions of government for which ballots are printed, without regard to the length of such respective ballots.

(c) The costs of voting places and election board members shall be borne equally by the subdivisions of government for which elections are conducted at such voting places.

(1) Where voting places are required for one or more, but less than all subdivisions of government, because the geographical areas of all subdivisions are not coextensive, the direct costs of such voting places shall be apportioned only among the subdivisions for which elections are conducted thereat. (Authorized by K.S.A. 25-2203; effective, E-73-18, July 1, 1973; effective Jan. 1, 1974.)

6-1-2. Indirect costs. Indirect costs which shall not be reimbursed nor apportioned shall include the following:

- (a) Costs of regular and temporary county election office employees.
- (b) Charges for the use of voting machines.
- (c) Preparation and/or furnishing of maps.
- (d) Costs of rental of office equipment for use in election offices. (Authorized by K.S.A. 25-2203; effective, E-73-18, July 1, 1973; effective Jan. 1, 1974.)
